HOLIDAY WISHES OF GRATITUDE, HOPE & HARMONY!

Friends, with our country and many traditions in seeming disarray and divisiveness, we wonder what we can do — what positive, unifying steps could we individually take right now?

Thankfully, across cultures and centuries, a key unifier survives— the fine arts and especially classical concert music. For this reason, our big comeback next spring, after two cancelled seasons, will feature five exciting fine arts events — all included in the price of a 2019 ticket!

SAVE THE DATES: Thursday, March 10 to Sunday, March 13, 2022 Here are the plans:

Back and grander than ever will be our gala benefit, BACH, BEETHOVEN & BARBECUE, and the 37^h Annual YTA FINALISTS' CONCERT & AWARDS (both Saturday, March 12) at the Crighton Theatre and a very Grand Pavilion (in front of the Theatre on Conroe's Main Street).

Also that weekend, enjoy rising Texas stars at the CLASSIC DANCE INVITATIONAL, FINE ART INVITATIONAL SHOW (both with complimentary refreshments), and the lively, more casual POETRY SHOWCASE at Red Brick Tavern (free brew & "redneck hors d'oeuvres").

An additional event, SPONSORS & JUDGES DINNER (on the Crighton stage), honors and will be complimentary for the Weekend's donors ($1,000+) and distinguished judges of the 37th annual Young Texas Artists Music Competition.

PLEASE PLAN TO COME AND HELP US COME BACK! Right away — email or mail the enclosed Advance Reservations Form (for arrival by December 13 to be listed in the Invitation and by December 31 for year-end tax advantages). Your support is needed!

Our gratitude for you and all members of the YTA family who have helped us "keep the lights on" and also double the 2022 cash awards to $40,000 for deserving young Texas artists.

Y'ALL COME!
